The following shall be included in the existing definitions:

"Wharf Demurrage" is a charge assessed against cargo remaining in or on terminal facilities after the expiration of free time without prearranged storage.

"Dockage" means the charge assessed against a vessel for berthing at a wharf, pier, bulkhead structure, or bank, or for mooring to a vessel so berthed. Dockage charges do not include tying up and casting off service.

"Tranship" means the act of moving cargo from one vessel and loading it on or into another.

"Wharfage" means a charge assessed against the cargo or vessel on all cargo passing on or conveyed over, onto, or under wharves, or berthing vessels (to or from barge, lighter, or water) when berthed at wharf or when moored in a slip adjacent to a wharf.

"Free Time" is the specific period during which cargo may occupy space assigned to it on terminal property free of wharf demurrage charges immediately prior to the loading or subsequent to the discharge of such cargo on or off the vessel.
